Christmas Mice

Formerly titled CHRISTMAS PRESENT BOOK and THE SANTA CLAUS BOOK

A GOLDEN BOOK • NEW YORK

Western Publishing Company, Inc., Racine, Wisconsin 53404

 Library of Congress Catalog Card Number: 81-86149 ISBN: 0-307-10125-8 MCMXCVI

It was early Christmas morning.

Santa had come in the night and left presents
for everyone.

No one was awake yet, except for two little mice.

They climbed up the Christmas tree to look at the ornaments.

They looked at the Christmas candies on the shelf.

Then they looked under the tree.
Santa had put a picture book there...

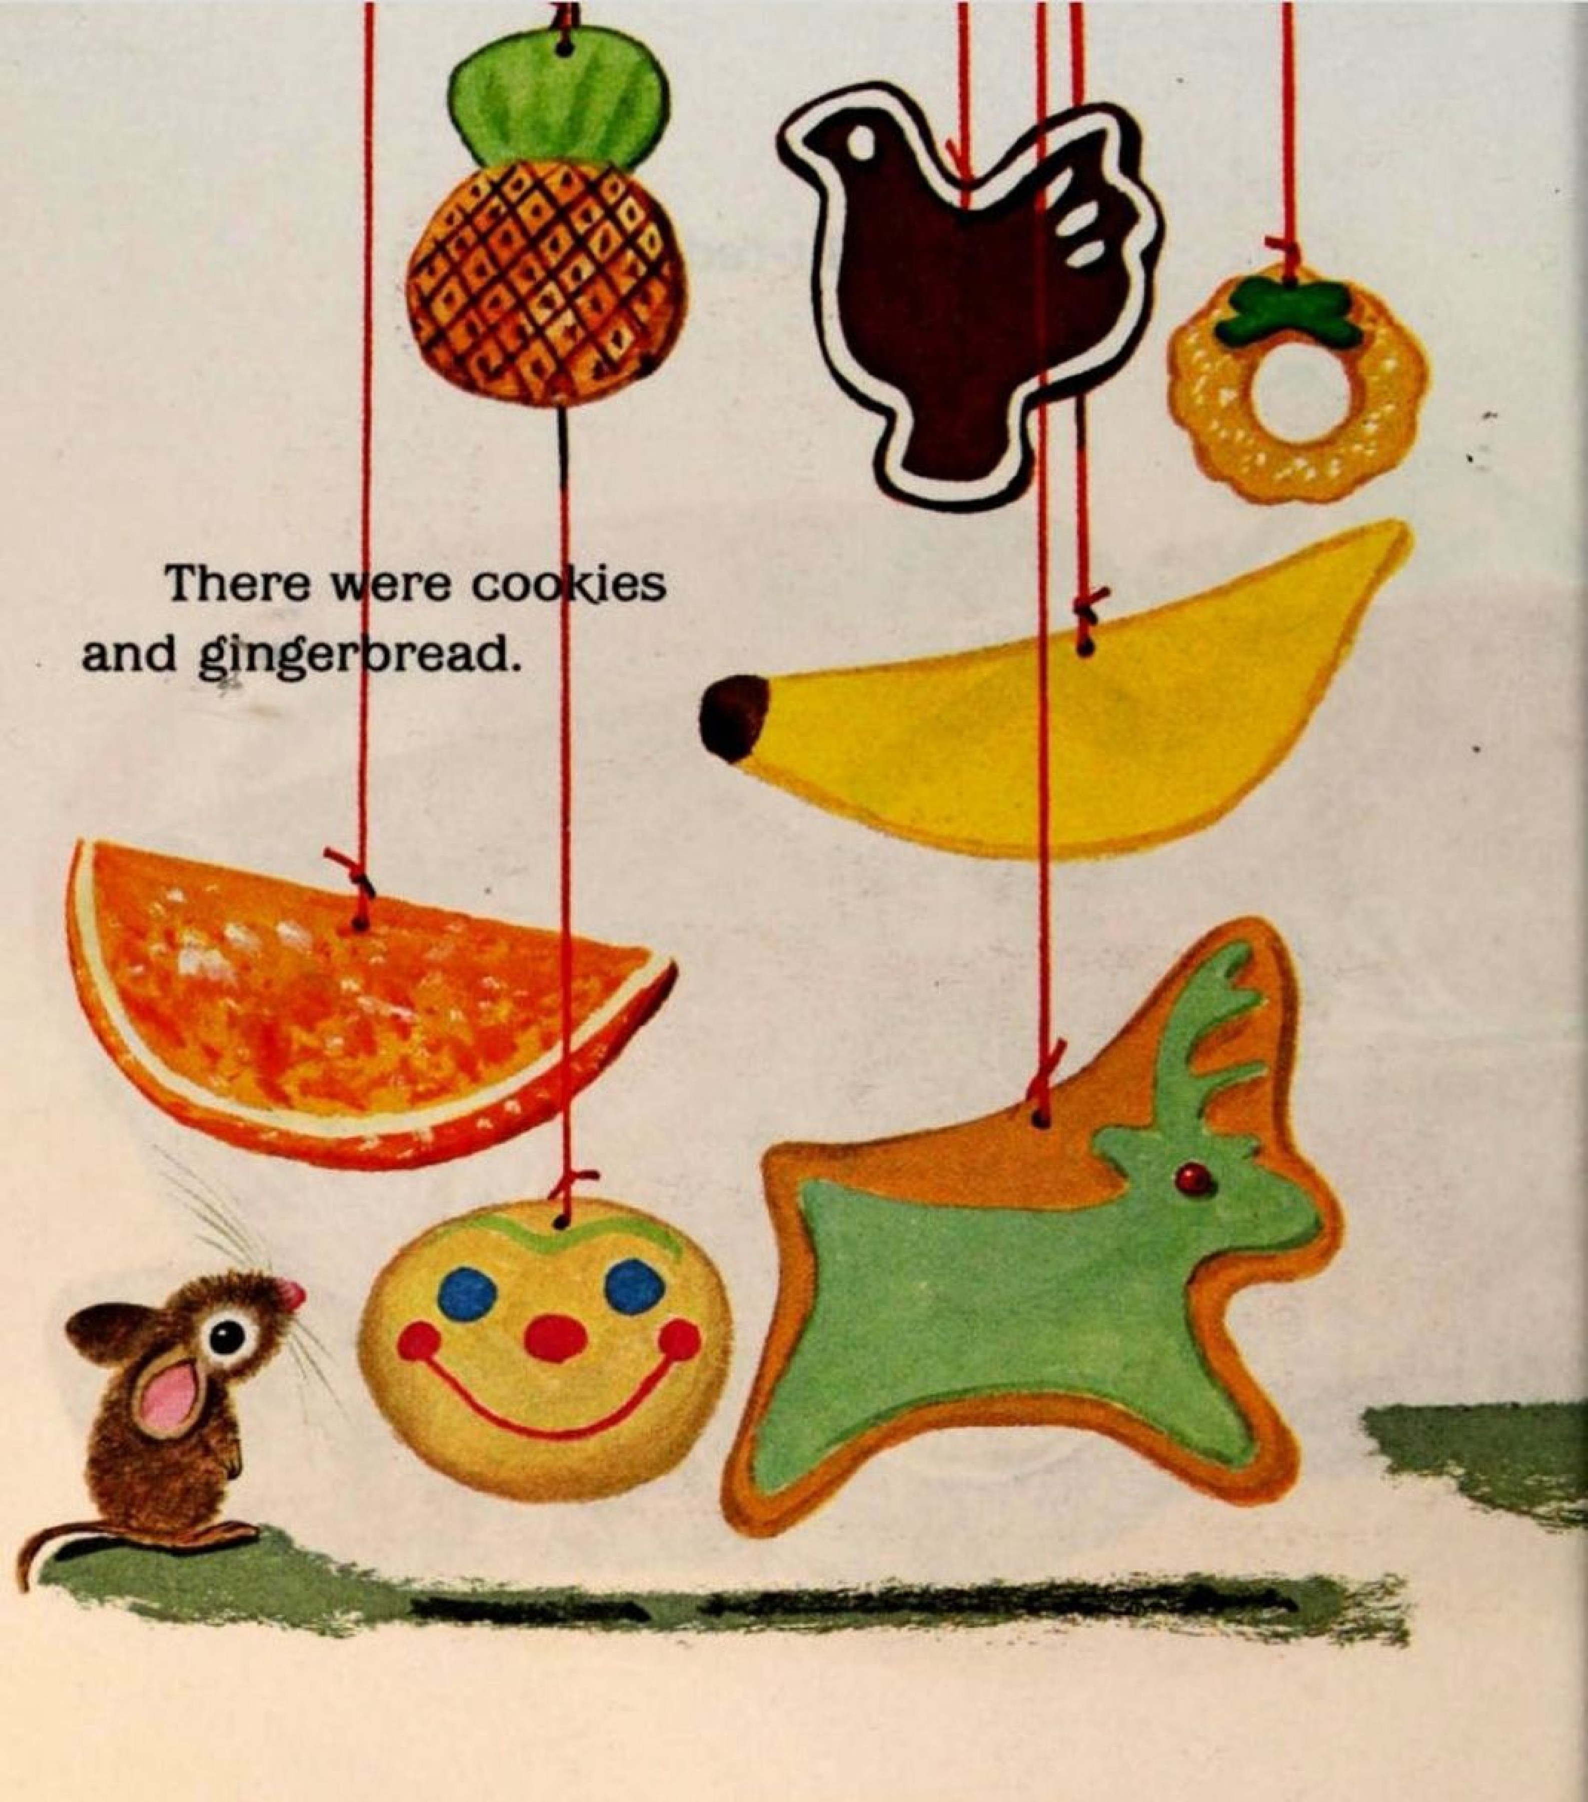

...and a castle with soldiers...

...and a blue dollhouse...

FROM SANTA

...and a bright-red racing car.

There were cookies
and gingerbread.

There was even a gingerbread house.

Santa had not forgotten to leave two dolls, one large and one small...

...and lots of cuddly toy animals.

There were presents for everyone,
wrapped in pretty papers and ribbons.

And there was a real, live puppy for the whole family.

But had Santa forgotten the two little mice?

No—he had left them a big piece of cheese. Merry Christmas, little mice!
